

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Dr. Jonathan and Dr. Olive Wilkin Scholarship Fund

The purpose of the Dr. Jonathan and Dr. Olive Wilkin Scholarship Fund is to facilitate the advancement of a student's education in Japanese language. The funds may be used for tuition, room and board, study abroad fees and travel, and other educational expenses.

Eligibility

The award is open to all current OSU students. To be eligible, applicants must have a minimum 3.0 grade point average, completed the first two courses of Japanese, and are committed to mastering the Japanese language. Undergraduate students must be majoring in Japanese. Graduate students must have declared a primary focus on Japanese language. Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate financial need; applicants who are receiving scholarships for full tuition are not eligible. The scholarship may be renewable for multiple years, upon receipt of application.

Application

Applicants should provide the following via email to Kelly Snow (snow.208@osu.edu):

- A letter stating their current level of Japanese and future goals.
- Their current Advising Report.
- A current resume.
- Two letters of recommendation, including one from a current Japanese language instructor, to be sent directly to snow.208@osu.edu.

Deadline

In order to be considered for the scholarship, all application materials must be received by September 15, 2017.

Selection

Recipients will be selected by a committee of the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures faculty in Japanese studies. Recipients will be notified by October 1, 2017.
